

“Rikki-tikki-tavi” by Rudyard Kipling
Assessment Breakdown

Test Scheduled for: Monday, September 24th

17 questions

- 15 Multiple Choice
- 1 Short Answer Response (2 points)— respond briefly by providing the material requested (bullet points are fine, but be sure you’re detailed and responding to the question)
- 1 Extended Response (4 points)—Must respond in complete sentences, restate the question, provide an answer and give at least 2 specific details from the text to support your answer.

Materials to Review/Study:

1. Short Story Elements notes (review parts of plot and types of conflict, specifically)
 2. “Before You Read” handout including definitions
 3. “While You Read”—check your understanding and memory of the story’s plot by reviewing these study questions and the correct answers we discussed in class.
 4. “After You’ve Read”—study figurative language and examples seen in “Rikki-tikki-tavi”
 5. Story Map—review specific literary elements identified in this story as discussed in class.
-

Rikki-tikki-tavi by Rudyard Kipling
7th Grade Common Assessment #1

Assessment Breakdown

Test Scheduled for: Monday, September 24th

17 questions

- 15 Multiple Choice
- 1 Short Answer Response (2 points)— respond briefly by providing the material requested (bullet points are fine, but be sure you’re detailed and responding to the question)
- 1 Extended Response (4 points)—Must respond in complete sentences, restate the question, provide an answer and give at least 2 specific details from the text to support your answer.

Materials to Review/Study:

1. Short Story Elements notes (review parts of plot and types of conflict, specifically)
2. “Before You Read” handout including definitions
3. “While You Read”—check your understanding and memory of the story’s plot by reviewing these study questions and the correct answers we discussed in class.
4. “After You’ve Read”—study figurative language and examples seen in “Rikki-tikki-tavi”
5. Story Map—review specific literary elements identified in this story as discussed in class.